

Auction Sales.
SALES BY AUCTION
AT THE MART, 199 PITT-STREET,
by
HENRY HARRIS AND COMPANY,
LATE

HARRIS AND ACKMAN,
TUESDAY, 26TH NOVEMBER, at 11 a.m.

JOHN JOHNSON'S FARM

20 Cows, 10000 lbs. weight,

10000 lbs. Beef, 10000 lbs. Lamb,

10000 lbs. Mutton, 10000 lbs. Veal,

10000 lbs. Pigs, 10000 lbs. Bacon,

10000 lbs. Vegetables,

10000 lbs. Peaches and Apricots

10000 lbs. Salt,

10000 lbs. Salmon

10000 lbs. Ham

10000 lbs. Vesta

10000 lbs. Butter

10000 lbs. Wine

10000 lbs. Eggs

10000 lbs. Flour

10000 lbs. Bread

10000 lbs. Butter

10000 lbs. Butter</b

SPECIAL CABLES.
FROM THE HERALD'S LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

SITUATION IN TURKEY.
THE ARREST OF AN ENGLISH CLERGYMAN.

FIFTY ARMENIANS SENTENCED TO BE HANGED.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Sir Philip Currie, the British Ambassador in Constantinople, has informed the Foreign Office that Great Britain will not tolerate the arbitrary treatment on the part of the Turkish authorities towards Mr. McCallum, the English clergyman who was arrested by the Turks while engaged in distributing relief among the destitute Armenians at Marash, in Asiatic Turkey, and sent to Constantinople.

Fifty Armenians who took a leading part in the riots on the occasion of the attack of the Imperial Ottoman Bank, have been sentenced to be hanged.

APPEAL ON BEHALF OF THE ARMENIANS.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Abbé Frémont preached an eloquent sermon in the Church of the Madeleine, Paris, yesterday upon the Armenian question. He appealed to France to relieve the Armenians. Hundreds in the congregation were moved to tears by the Abbé's appeal.

Cardinal Richel, preaching on the same subject, declared that the conscience of France was awaking to the necessity for a change in regard to Armenia, and he trusted that they would see the "hateful system" ended.

THE TURKISH DEBT.

PROPOSED INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Russia has rejected a proposal put forward by France to transform the Turkish debt and to vest it in a commission under international control, to the Egyptian Caisse de la Dette.

EUROPEAN SITUATION.

RUSSIA AND FRANCE.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—In the French Chamber of Deputies yesterday M. Hanotaux, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, was questioned as to the terms of the treaty with Russia.

In reply, M. Hanotaux declined to add to the statements made at Cherbourg, the existence of an entente cordiale, however, was denied and undoubted.

ITALY IN AFRICA.

THE COLONY OF ERYTHREA.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—It is understood that if the Italian colony of Erythrea, on the Red Sea, liberal, should be evacuated under the terms of the treaty recently concluded between Italy and Abyssinia, Massawa, the capital, and the town of Kassala will be returned to Egypt.

RINDERPEST IN SOUTH AFRICA.
PROPOSED SHOOTING OF CATTLE.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The Register to-day publishes the details of the trials for the September quarter. These indicate that the interbreeding for the past nine months of the present year has been satisfactory and largely successful. At the previous year's trial of a mob of 500 cattle from Warrnambool, travelling to Heriot, on the Birdie track, 470 perished from want of water.

It is understood that Mr. Foster, M.P., Ministerial support will early bring in the bill for the proposed legislation giving opportunity for compelling the railway between Albury and Pine Creek by private enterprise. The Anglo-French Company, of which Mr. Rosewarne, in the Northern Territory, is the representative, is willing to do the work upon receiving a lease of the line and the blocks of land for the construction of the railway.

A petition, signed by a Judge of the Supreme Court, assisted by experts from the other colonies, into the medical affairs of the hospital.

ADELAIDE. Monday.

The Legislative Council Select Committee sat again to-night to take evidence in connection with the charges made against Dr. Leith Napier and Dr. Ramsey Smith, who recently came from Eng'nd to take charge of the hospital. There was a general desire to have the committee to sit again to-night.

A petition to the government was submitted, signed by a Judge of the Supreme Court, assisted by experts from the other colonies, into the medical affairs of the hospital.

THE FAMINE IN INDIA.
WIDESPREAD DISTRESS.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Rain has fallen in the Rajputana district in India, one of the divisions affected by the protracted drought.

The effects of the famine are most severely felt at Allahabad, Lucknow, Faizabad, and Agra.

Altogether 40,000,000 of inhabitants are affected by the famine, and of this number 13,000,000 are suffering acute privations.

DR. JAMESON.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Dr. Jameson, who is serving a term of imprisonment for a breach of the Foreign Enlistments Act in connection with the raid into the Transvaal, and who was reported to have undergone a serious operation, is now improving.

NOV. 23.
President Kruger has expressed regret at the news of the illness of Dr. Jameson.

LAUNCH OF A NEW STEAMER.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Union Steamship Company's new steamer Hawea, built for the New Zealand trade, has been launched at Messrs. Wm. Denny's shipbuilding yards, Dumbarton.

(The Hawea is one of four new steamers which have been ordered by the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand for their coastal and intercolonial trade.)

DOCKERS ON STRIKE.

LOADING OF VESSELS STOPPED.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The dockers of Hamburg and at the adjoining port of Altona, have struck for an increase of wages. All loading of vessels has been stopped.

THE BOVRIL COMPANY.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The business of Bovril, Limited, which was recently purchased by Mr. Ernest T. Hooley, has been formed into a public company with a capital of £2,500,000, the whole of which is to be issued in shares for public subscription.

Morosa Tobacco: Summer Evening.—The real name of Morosa is Dinson's Bananas Cigars, 4 bananas Cigars in packet, 6d.—(Adv't.)

SPECIAL CABLES.
FROM THE HERALD'S LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

THE MATABELE REBELLION.
A MEMORIAL TO THE VICTIMS.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—A movement has been started to raise a memorial to the settlers in Rhodesia who lost their lives in connection with the Matabele rebellion.

Mr. Cecil Rhodes, who is visiting England, has subscribed £5000 to the fund.

THE MANITOBA SCHOOL QUESTION.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—In the course of an address yesterday Mr. Langrave, the Roman Catholic Archbishop of St. Boniface, Winnipeg, and Manitoba, said that the scheme of the Government for the settlement of the Manitoba school question was a farce, and impossible of acceptance. It pained him, it was added, certain to cause a revolution in the province of Quebec.

THE WEST INDIAN SUGAR TRADE.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Mr. Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, has announced that it is the intention of the Government to appoint a commission to inquire into the critical position of the West Indian sugar trade, and to devise remedies for the same.

EUROPEAN BEET SUGAR PRODUCTION.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Herr F. O. Licht, the Magdeburg beet sugar expert, estimates that the European production of beet sugar to date shows an increase of 51,000 tons. The estimate for the present campaign remains unaltered.

THE NIGER PROTECTORATE.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Eight more officers of the British army have left for West Africa to serve with the forces of the Royal Niger Company against the rebel natives.

NOV. 23.
The Berlin press, in referring to the British punitive expedition to be despatched from Akassa in December next, insists that the Government shall not permit the Niger campaign to prejudice German national interests.

ITALY IN AFRICA.

THE FIRE IN FLINDERS-LANE.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Legislatiive Council Select Committee sat again to-night to take evidence in connection with the charges made against Dr. Leith Napier and Dr. Ramsey Smith, who recently came from Eng'nd to take charge of the hospital. There was a general desire to have the committee to sit again to-night.

A petition to the government was submitted, signed by a Judge of the Supreme Court, assisted by experts from the other colonies, into the medical affairs of the hospital.

REDUCTION IN PORT CHARGES.

MELBOURNE, Monday.

The Chamber of Commerce has been considering the effect upon the port of Melbourne likely to be produced by the heavy reduction of the port charges at Sydney, and has decided that steps should be taken to avail of the advantages of that port.

The Minister of Trade and Customs has advised that the testator made a deliberate and voluntary will, which was good, and that he was fully entitled to make it.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The executors sought to obtain probate to both documents.

The granting of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

The grant of probate was opposed by John Symington Bunting, younger son of the testator, on the grounds that his father had made his will with the intention of leaving his estate to the Salvation Army.

<p

